

The image shows three circular buttons. The top button is dark with the word 'VOTE' in white capital letters. The middle button is dark with a white border of stars and a newspaper clipping. The bottom button is dark with a white border of stars and a newspaper clipping. The buttons are arranged in a slightly overlapping, descending line from left to right.

CHOOSE WHO GETS YOUR VOTE

Communities with a local newspaper are smarter, stronger and closer. Their citizens are connected to one another, and invested in what happens around them.

The local paper is also one of the only places you can find timely news on what's happening right where you live. That's why 152 million Americans read local newspapers each week.

Keep reading your local newspaper...and keep your community going strong.

The logo for the Kansas Press Association, featuring a stylized feather or quill pen inside a circle.

Kansas Press Association
kspress.com